

Overall, middle market leaders are positive about long-term business and economic prospects.
Brexit's five-year impact

But many are rising to the challenge.

68%
Say their business is prepared for Brexit

Top actions businesses have taken

1. Taken measures to increase productivity and efficiency
2. Reviewed existing EU workers' status
3. Increased local recruitment

All sectors are positive, some more than others.
Proportion that feel positive about their sector prospects

And even expecting to increase headcount.
66% say they will increase headcount over the next 12 months

