

Driving performance and efficiencies in payroll

Solutions to improve your payroll processes

Our approach provides the flexibility and scalability to adjust your payroll function as your business needs change, providing you with the level of service you require through the lifetime of our partnership.

Our payroll service is part of RSM's People Advisory Services group. This enables us to collaborate with you on addressing complex issues with your people, ensuring that we design, implement and maintain the right strategies for you. Our practical support covers a host of areas in addition to payroll, from tax, to HR and legal advice, helping you to get the best value from your investment in people.

Our areas of expertise include:

- employment taxes and compliance;
- global expatriate services;
- planning of employee benefit packages;
- employment law advice and contracts;
- HR support; and
- share, reward and incentivisation.

How can RSM help?

Our flexible and practical solutions combine the expertise and personal service of our team of professionals, with a proprietary system designed to make your life as an employer more productive and less stressful.

The scalable services run from delivery of software as a service only through to fully managed services with access to dedicated HR and payroll specialists.

Employees and managers are empowered to manage their own data through our cloud based portal and employers gain real time, trusted data as well as flexible reporting options.
